

If OTC medicines weren't available 27 million people would tough it out and not seek treatment.